

DATA PRIVACY NOTICE

The Parochial Church Council (PCC) of St Michael and All Angels, Great and Little Oakley, and their Vicar or Churchwardens

1. Your personal data – what is it?

Personal data means any information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person. A natural person is one who can be identified directly or indirectly by any information in the data controller's possession (see below) or likely to come into such possession. The processing of personal data is governed by the General Data Protection Regulation (the "GDPR").

2. Who are we?

The PCC of St Michael and All Angels, Great and Little Oakley, and their Vicar or Churchwardens are the data controllers (contact details below). This means they decide how your personal data is processed and for what purposes and ensure it complies with data protection regulations. In the absence of a Vicar, the Churchwarden (s) are the data controllers.

3. How do we process your personal data?

The PCC of St Michael and All Angels, Great and Little Oakley, and their Vicar or Churchwardens comply with their obligations on a lawful basis under the "GDPR" by keeping personal data up to date; by storing and destroying it securely; by not collecting or retaining excessive amounts of data; by protecting personal data from loss, misuse, unauthorised access and disclosure and by ensuring that appropriate technical measures are in place to protect personal data.

We use your personal data for the following purposes: -

- To enable us to provide a voluntary service for the benefit of the public in Great Oakley, Little Oakley and Oakley Vale.
- To administer membership records.
- To fundraise and promote the interests of the charity.
- To manage our volunteers.
- To maintain our own accounts and records (including the processing of gift aid applications).
- To inform you of news, events, activities, and services running at the church.
- To share your contact details (if you wish) with the Diocesan office so they can keep you informed about news in the diocese and events, activities and services that will be occurring in the diocese and in which you may be interested.

4. What is the legal basis for processing your personal data?

- Explicit consent of the data subject so that we can keep you informed about news, events, activities, and services and keep you informed about diocesan events.
- Processing is necessary for carrying out legal obligations in relation to Gift Aid or under employment, social security or social protection law, or a collective agreement.
- Processing is carried out by a not-for-profit body with a philosophical or religious aim provided: -
 - the processing relates only to members or former members (or those who have regular contact with it in connection with those purposes); and
 - there is no disclosure to a third party without consent.

5. Sharing your personal data

Your personal data will be treated as strictly confidential and will only be shared on a lawful basis with other members of the church to carry out a service to other church members or for purposes connected with the church. We will only share your data with third parties outside of the parish with your explicit consent.

6. How long do we keep your personal data¹?

We keep data in accordance with the guidance set out in the guide “Keep or Bin: Care of Your Parish Records” which is available from the Church of England website [see footnote for link].

Specifically, we retain electoral roll data while it is still current; gift aid declarations and associated paperwork for up to 6 years after the calendar year to which they relate; and parish registers (baptisms, confirmations, marriages, funerals) are held permanently.

7. Your rights and your personal data

Unless subject to an exemption under the GDPR, you have the following rights with respect to your personal data: -

- The right to request a copy of your personal data which the PCC of St. Michael and All Angels Great and Little Oakley and their Vicar hold about you.
- The right to request that the PCC of St Michael and All Angels Great and Little Oakley, and their Vicar or Churchwardens correct any personal data if it is found to be inaccurate or out of date.
- The right to request your personal data is erased where it is no longer necessary for the PCC of St. Michael and All Angels Great and Little Oakley, and their Vicar to retain such data.
- The right to withdraw your consent to the processing at any time.
- The right to request that the data controller provide the data subject with his/her personal data and where possible, to transmit that data directly to another data controller, (known as the right to data portability), (where applicable) [Only applies where the processing is based on consent or is necessary for the performance of a contract with the data subject and in either case the data controller processes the data by automated means].
- The right, where there is a dispute in relation to the accuracy or processing of your personal data, to request a restriction is placed on further processing.
- The right to object to the processing of personal data, (where applicable) [Only applies where processing is based on legitimate interests (or the performance of a task in the public interest/exercise of official authority); direct marketing and processing for the purposes of scientific/historical research and statistics]
- The right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioners Office.

8. Further processing

If we wish to use your personal data for a new purpose, not covered by this Data Protection Notice, then we will provide you with a new notice explaining this new use prior to commencing the processing and setting out the relevant purposes and processing conditions. Where and whenever necessary, we will seek your prior consent to the new processing.

9. Contact Details
